

Congratulations GCPS 2017-18 Teachers of the Year!

Travis Patrick (Gloucester H.S.); Jennifer Hemphill (Peasley M.S.); Melanie McComb (Abingdon E.S.); Sharon Carino (Petsworth E.S.); Amber Meland (Achilles E.S.); Michelle Kennedy (Bethel E.S.); Natalie Shepherd (Botetourt M.S.); Shanna Merritt (Page M.S.) & John Scalf (Gloucester H.S.)

The Gloucester County Public Schools Educational Foundation held its annual "Teacher of the Year" recognition dinner on Wednesday, May 2nd to honor those teachers selected in each of the eight schools throughout the division as "Teacher of the Year."

Carino, Merritt, and Patrick were announced at the dinner as the elementary, middle and high school Division "Teachers of the Year." They each received $500 from the GCPS Educational Foundation, an engraved ring provided by Jostens, Inc. and an engraved plaque. Hemphill, McComb, Meland, Kennedy and Shepherd each received $300 and a certificate from the foundation. Each teacher's name was also added to the engraved Perpetual "Teacher of the Year" plaques provided by Bill Hudgins GMC and on display in each school.

Sharon Carino was selected to represent GCPS in the Mary V. Bicouvaris State Teacher of the Year Program
