What Families Experiencing Homelessness Need to Know

- Children and youth experiencing homelessness can stay in their school of origin or enroll in any public school that students living in the same attendance zone are eligible to attend, whichever circumstance proves to be in their best interest.
- Schools must provide you with a written explanation if a placement dispute occurs. Contact your local Homeless Liaison for assistance in handling a placement dispute.

- Your child may have the right to transportation services to and from the school of origin if determined feasible.

Who are "Unaccompanied Youth?"

They are youth who are not in the physical custody of a parent or guardian including:

- Young people who have run away from home.
- Young people who have been forced to leave their homes.

Their possible living situations include:

- Living with friends (couch surfing).
- Living in shelters.
- Living in cars, at campgrounds, in abandoned buildings or on the streets.

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act requires immediate enrollment of these students and protects their right to attend school without parental involvement. Transportation assistance must be provided if the student needs transportation to the school or origin.
